

~~President Arroyo said that he will support the bill, but he will not support the bill if it is not supported by the majority of the House of Representatives. He said that he will support the bill if it is supported by the majority of the House of Representatives.~~